Learning Network for Kids (LINKS) Highlights

LINKS is a network of programs that serve prenatal through Pre-K children and their families to ensure all families have the support and services they need.

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

Singer and songwriter, Dolly Parton, started the Imagination Library to inspire a love of reading and prepare young children for success in school and beyond. Barbara and Loren Nelson started the Imagination Library of Grant County in 2010. Its mission is to promote literacy for all Grant County preschool children by delivering books to their homes monthly and to support the expansion of Dolly Parton's Imagination Library across the state of New Mexico. Currently, over 1,000 local children and 24,000 kids statewide receive books in the mail every month.

If registered at birth, a child will receive 60 books by the time they turn five, including bilingual books in Spanish and English. Studies show the more books a child has at home, the better they do in school. Reading to babies is one of the best things we can do for them.

You can sign up children between 0-4 years old by scanning the code below.

- Share books and talk with children.
- Support health and safety.

CPC Projects

CPC's Home-Grown Network for Childcare Meeting (HGNC)

We hosted our first HGNC meeting on October 12th with a great turnout of six participants! We're excited to host more gatherings in the future and welcome new home-based childcare members.

If you take care of children in your home and are eager to become a registered provider, check out our website at

WE GET IT AND IT'S OK

Studies have found that spending time in nature can be good for your psychological well-being. A quick walk in the park, a hike on a trail, or time spent tending a garden could help you feel rested and relaxed.
